Re: Doyle v. Gentile et al., 1:21-cv-08528 (LTS) (OTW)

Dear Judge Wang:

Pursuant to Rule I(a) of Your Honor's Individual Rules & Practices in Civil Cases and the Court's Order on January 27, 2025 (ECF No. 143), we submit on behalf of all parties a joint letter describing the status of scheduling the third-party depositions of Pam Veasey and Cassi Crededio.

The parties met and conferred on January 30, 2025 to discuss scheduling the depositions of Ms. Veasey and Ms. Crededio.

The parties have agreed that both depositions may proceed via videoconference.

At this time, the parties are awaiting feedback from the witnesses' respective counsel to proceed with scheduling the depositions at a mutually agreeable date and time. Accordingly, the parties intend to meet and confer again upon receipt of the witnesses' respective availability and file a follow-up joint letter with the Court to confirm the agreed-upon dates or otherwise provide appropriate detail to the extent that the parties are unable to reach agreement.

Defendants' position is, if we run into any scheduling conflicts with deponents, that they will seek an alternative, i.e., affidavit or similar resolution as previously discussed with Plaintiff's counsel, not extensions.
